

dreams & pride

live your fullest, most fantastic self

Dreams form much of our creativity. They're a good source of inspiration and fantastical thinking, hiding some of our deepest feelings.

Pride is a time to show who you are, whether that's in your dreams, or a celebration of yourself.

Whether you choose to share your dreams and pride with others, or you're not yet ready: You're valid.

Two themes this month? Why yes – Pride is a foundation of modern art, and is a moment to celebrate for many artists and friends. Even if you don't think it's "you", support your friends who are different from the norm. Art is about creative expression, and some of the truest expression is in who we are.

Dreams are big sources of creativity, even if we don't remember most of them! The impossible is possible, and we can show that in art too.

Don't hold back: draw your inner feelings, your dreams, your pride, even if you're not ready to show it to the world. Your sketches are yours and you can keep them private, or share and celebrate.

Like the prompt? Draw it and check ☒ it off.

Not feeling it? Draw what you want and write it in the blank space.

This calendar is yours. Miss a day? Drew the wrong thing? That's OK! We're all human. Let yourself make mistakes.
